Hanul Course 18H / 7,111yd Designed by FINEAM

The course resembles a course in Arizona, with natural rock beds. The course, which was designed for tournaments, is composed of broad fairways and cliffs, mountains, and valleys that resemble the Grand- Canyon. You can have a view of the ocean while taking shots. The whole course is covered with the luxurious bent grasses.

Classic Course 18H / 6,912yd Designed by RNGCA

This course is redesigned in 2009. Architect, Robin Nelsen says that he wants to create natural and rustic golf course with its long and wide wasted areas. It's renamed as 'Classic' Course from 'Links' Course as recommendation of architect who got inspiration from the Golden Age Golf Courses such as Cypress Point Golf Course in creating the new bunker styles.
